Fr. Gross Appointed To Labor Committee

V. Rev. Raphael Gross, C.P.P.S., president of St. Joseph's College, has been appointed by Gov. Hanley of Indiana to his special Governor's Committee on Migratory Labor and has also been appointed a member of the board of directors of the Indiana College Student-Aid Foundation.

The Governor's Committee will be concerned with the establishment of better health and housing conditions for migratory workers in Indiana. After study of the problems, the committee will make recommendations to the governor to set up standards in these fields.

The Indiana College Student-Aid Foundation is set up by various banks and corporations over the state to lend money to needy college students at a very reasonable rate of interest. The directors themselves will not have to solicit funds, but will supervise the policies of the foundation and the proper distribution of available funds.

According to many people, the Foundation is one answer to the federal loan program since some prefer that such funds be made available through private channels, rather than governmental.

These two appointments are in addition to Fr. Gross' membership on the Provincial Board of the C.P.P.S. and his position as a director of the Associated Colleges of Indiana.

$10,000 Hospital Donation Offered

The Very Rev. Raphael H. Gross, president of St. Joseph's College, has announced that the college will donate 10 acres of land or will contribute $10,000—whichever gift is more suitable—for the proposed new Jasper County hospital. St. Joseph's is located in Jasper County, Ind.

The offer was made in a letter from Father Gross to Wayne Firestone, acting chairman of the Jasper County Hospital Citizens' Committee. Father Gross stated that the college is "fully in accord with the proposal for a new hospital" and that the college's earlier offer to donate 10 acres of land stands, "with absolutely no reservations, as an outright gift." The land fronts U.S. 231 and Indiana 53 and is adjacent to city limits.

"Should this site prove unsuitable," said Father Gross, "the college will contribute $10,000 to the New Hospital Fund, on the condition."

Mock Dem. Convention Held on Campus May 2-3

Plans have been announced for the staging of a mock political convention on the St. Joseph's campus Monday and Tuesday, May 2 and 3. Procedures of the convention will parody those of the national Democratic convention which will be held in Los Angeles this summer.

United States Senator Gale W. McGee (D., Wyoming) has informed the students organizing the 1960 Mock National Presidential Nominating Convention that he accepts their invitation to give the keynote address at Saint Joseph's College on May 2. Senator McGee holds a Ph.D. in history and has taught at the University of Notre Dame and the University of Wyoming. He is an expert in the area of foreign affairs.

The Mock Convention, its rules and procedures modeled after the great national party conventions which nominate our presidents every four years, is being undertaken by students on campus who are interested in politics and who wish to familiarize themselves with the forms, situations and problems with which our party leaders must deal in order to operate the machinery of our democracy.

A great amount of pre-convention organizing of state delegations and solicitation of support by campaign managers for various candidates has already taken place. The students decided in favor of a Mock Democratic National Convention largely because of the anticipated excitement of the five way tug-of-war at Los Angeles, although many of the student leaders involved identify themselves as Republicans. The "National Chairman," Bill Moriarity of Birmingham, Michigan, has announced that about four hundred students have so far signed up as delegates from 50 states and 3 territories.

Pastrick, '52, Here For Political Workshop

On Feb. 27 and 28, the History Club of St. Joseph's College sponsored a Political Workshop in the College auditorium. The workshop was held in connection with the February Regional Council meeting of the National Federation of Catholic College Students, which took place on Sunday after the Workshop.

Speakers who attended the workshop were: State Senator, Earl F. Landgrebe, Valparaiso District, Republican; Bill Leopold, president of the Young Republicans of Indiana; Stan Evans, Publicity Chairman for the National Federation of Young Republicans; State Senator, Marshall Kizer, Co-Chairman of the Kennedy-for-President Organization in Indiana, Plymouth District; and Bob Pastrick, '52, president of the Young Democrats of Indiana.

The Workshop was divided into four separate conferences, consisting of a 45 minute talk by the speaker and then a question and answer period in which all those present could participate.

Subjects discussed at the Workshop consisted in an explanation of the Senators' campaigns for election in 1960 and the difference between the two parties on the campaign issues.

The Christian Family Movement

The last two issues of this column focused your attention on some worth-while publications in religion and philosophy. Perhaps you welcomed them and even resolved to buy one or more of the recommended books for the purpose of sweeping the cobwebs out of your mind. Maybe the bibliographies did no more than stir up memories of certain "necessary" or "useless" courses you had to take because you went to a Catholic college. Whatever your reactions, the question of the value of such readings for you and the place or lack of them in your life must have at least rustled through the tassels of your consciousness. Watch out for such questions. They might change your whole life. At least, that is what happened to a small group of laymen in Chicago, friends of each other, who used to do a little Catholic reading and to discuss some of the things they had learned or heard in their college religion courses.

During World War II these men used to meet in informal sessions to see what they could do about this "Catholic Action" business they had been hearing about in college, from the pulpit, in the press, etc. Recent Popes seemed to be making quite a bit of it. Being typical Americans they were intrigued by the idea of "Action," particularly because it had to do with the activity of the laity in the Mystical Body of Christ. Wishing to keep their discussions Catholic they managed to interest a couple priests in helping them to understand Catholic Action and to apply it to their daily lives. One of their earliest and most emphatic discoveries was the realization that there existed a vast gulf between the minds of the clergy and those of the laity, that priests were simply not getting through to their flocks in their sermons, writings, counselling, etc. None were impressed with this conclusion as much as the priests. The upshot of the matter was that the latter withdrew from the discussions and went on to found the now famous and successful Cana Movement.

Sparked by absence of achievement the laymen continued their sessions with renewed vigor and enthusiasm. Meantime their wives became aware of the new and consuming interest in their husbands' lives. They seemed to be missing out on something. So they began to hold meetings of their own in which the Pre-Cana Movement was eventually organized and launched.

Soon the two groups found themselves under a cloud. It was obvious that what they were doing was a great boon to family life in general—but not to their own. What with two nights a week being set aside for the sessions and most of their free time taken up with action, to say nothing of their social commitments, father and mother and children were fast becoming strangers. Couldn't their activities somehow be pooled? At this point someone—nobody remembers who—came up with the utterly fantastic idea that both groups ought to meet together as couples. Everybody objected at once. The men insisted the women would talk too much! The women were sure the men wouldn't give them a chance! Besides, who would take care of the children? Surely not baby-sitters—poor substitutes indeed for responsible and loving parents! Still, it was worth a try. Then and there the Christian Family Movement was born.

The Movement (CFM for short) spread like the proverbial brush fire. It was enriched by, and in turn enriched, other existing forms of Catholic Action, but never at the expense of its two distinctive features: it is a couples' movement and its special field of interest is the Christian family. With expansion and the inevitable appearance of problems, there arose a need for identification and unity. Organization, at least beyond what is essential to any vital movement, was resisted from the outset, lest CFM lose its spontaneous character as a grass-roots movement. But a center of unity was indispensable. Accordingly, invitations were sent out to known groups to attend the first national convention.

Here is a capsule report on the first convention held at Childerley, Ill., on June 17-19, 1949. "On the last morning of the conference, the 59 delegates voted to create a national Coordinating Committee. The newspaper, Act, was named the official publication." Ten years later the report from Notre Dame University, where the conventions have been held since 1951, reads as follows: "Over 2,000 CFMers, children and Chaplains attended the tenth anniversary meeting. On hand were 650 couples, 555 children, 80 baby-sitters and 200 priests. . . ." Brief as this summary is, it indicates a phenomenal record of growth. And now, the eleventh meeting promises to be the biggest ever, the end of the yearly meetings because we've gotten too big. Next year's concentration will be on regional meetings—some of which are already larger than that first meeting of CFM eleven years ago. Meantime the Movement has spread to all the major continents and its estimated membership is in excess of 25,000 couples.

The main function of the Coordinating Committee, which is made up of one couple from each diocesan federation, is indicated by its name. Without usurping the autonomy of the local group or section, normally parish-centered, it renders CFM such services as: planning the conventions, supplying information, maintaining international contact, publishing CFM news and views, furnishing tools and aids to all who request them, etc. Four years ago a subcommittee was formed to take over the task of preparing and publishing an annual program of inquiries for the use of the local groups. It is at present engaged in writing the inquiries for next year on the family in relation to international life, having previously concentrated on the principal areas of lay, and especially family, responsibility: namely, parish life, social life, economic life, political life, and education. All these activities, and too many more to be enumerated, have been carried on without the benefit of dues—an odious word to CFMers. The Movement has operated, somewhat in the red, on the sale of the programs and other publications of the Coordinating Committee—to say nothing of the sacrifices and generosity of true Christian families.

Though most of this column has been devoted to the history of CFM and its Coordinating Committee, these matters are peripheral to the real elements of the Movement: the local Section and Action Groups. Normally, 5 to 7 couples meet every two weeks with a leader-couple, previously prepared by the Chaplain, to discuss an inquiry made up by themselves or taken from the annual program. The technique employed is basically that of the international Jost Movement, founded by Canon Cardijn: 15 minutes are devoted to a discussion of a short passage from the Bible and another 15 minutes to a consideration of some aspect of the liturgy, the purpose of which is to increase the knowledge and love of Christ in the members and to enable them to share more fully in the life Christ shares with the members of his Mystical Body. Then follows the main part of the meeting. During the past two weeks, the couples have made some directed observations on a specific problem affecting the family, say steady dating among teen-

Assistant Dean Position Created

Fr. Rudolph Bierberg, chairman of the department of religion and assistant professor of religion, has been appointed assistant to the academic dean of St. Joseph's College, a newly created position.

In his new position, Fr. Bierberg will share the present duties of the academic dean, with the actual delineation of the duties to be made in the future.

Fr. Bierberg graduated from St. Charles seminary, Carthage, O., and went on to graduate studies at the Catholic University of America where he has earned a STL in General Theology and a STD in Scripture. Since his graduation he has taught at Marian College in Wisconsin, Viterbo College in Wisconsin and St. Charles Seminary.

He has published articles in the Catholic Education Review, the Catholic Biblical Quarterly, Orate Fratres and the Precious Blood Messenger, as well as other periodicals for which he often contributes book reviews.

Presently, Fr. Bierberg is a member of the Catholic Biblical Association of America and the Catholic Theological Society of America. In 1949 he was elected chaplain for the Catholic Family Life Movement and is still serving in that capacity along with a membership on the Coordinating Committee of CFM.

Prof Receives Ford Fellowship

Dr. Bryce J. Jones, associate professor of economics and chairman of the Division of Business and Economics at St. Joseph's College, has received a $1,000 Ford Foundation fellowship for study this summer.

Dr. Jones will participate, with nine other faculty members from mid-western schools, in an eight-week research seminar in economics at the University of Michigan. The Michigan seminar is one of six such regional faculty gatherings to be held around the country from June 20 to Aug. 12 under the sponsorship of the Ford Foundation.

The 10 professors invited to Michigan will study "National Income: Problems of Stability and Growth." The seminar will be conducted by Professor Gardner Ackley of the University of Michigan faculty.

Participation in the seminars was open on a competitive basis to faculty members teaching economics or business subjects at institutions of higher learning which do not offer the Ph.D. degree in economics. The purpose of the program is to enhance the effectiveness of teaching and to encourage the preparation of significant research studies.

Each participant will formulate and work on a research topic at the seminar and the seminar will reconvene next year so the participants can exchange progress reports and criticism of their research done during the 1960-61 school year.

A 1945 graduate of Topeka high school in Topeka, Kansas, Dr. Jones received the B.S. degree from Creighton University in 1950 and the M.S. and Ph.D. degrees agers, which they now discuss in the light of Christian principles. The purpose of the discussion is not primarily to learn—CFM is not an organization of study clubs—but rather to lead to some specific Catholic Action the members are capable of implementing. When 25,000 couples act on a local level, something is bound to happen: this explains the importance and success of CFM; it could change the world!

Finally, the Movement begins to grow when the couples, after a year or two of experience, go on to form and lead other couples in a group. The latter is called an Action Group; a group consisting of leaders of Action Groups is called a Section; Sections are in turn united in a Diocesan Federation. Structurally, there is nothing above the Federations, though each of these maintain contact with the Coordinating Committee, whose headquarters are located at 100 West Monroe Street, Chicago 3, Ill. Write to this address for all information and details.

A final word. CFM is not just another parish society or club. It is a way of life. Though it does not exist primarily for the benefit of its members—it is an apostolic or out-going Movement—the benefits accruing to them and their families are incalculable in this life, socially, spiritually, intellectually and eternally. Ask anyone who has been in CFM for ten years as I have!

Here is the view which greeted the first students who came to St. Joseph's College in Sept. 1891. They probably rode in a horse-drawn hack or bus which they could hire to take them from the railroad depot to school. The highway was still all mud, but there were two rows of broad wooden planks for the convenience of pedestrians. In this photo the only building visible is the Administration Building, which at that time consisted of only the south half of the present building with a flat-top observation tower at the north end. A closer view would have revealed several lesser buildings, including two frame dwellings together with some farm sheds, relics of a diocesan orphanage which occupied the site before the building of the college.

This rare photograph was found pasted to a lone page from someone's album labeled merely "1890". To our knowledge there is no photo which reveals where lesser (orphan) buildings stood or what they looked like in those early days. However, in hopes of unearthing and saving from oblivion any such rare photographs we ask our readers to oblige us with any information as to who might likely have preserved such pictures.

Basketball Campaign Ends With 10 Wins, 12 Losses

St. Joseph's College basketball team concluded their season on a winning note Feb. 27 by pounding Marian to the record breaking tune of 112-88. Coach Joe Iofredo's Pumas, victorious in their final two outings, thus ended their season with a 10-12 record. The 112 points represent a new St. Joseph team and fieldhouse record for most points scored in one game.

Guard Bobby Williams (Indianapolis), who apparently had run out of records to crack, ended his record-smashing career in spectacular style by pouring in 45 points to break the record he had set twice previously this season for most points scored in one game.

Two other seniors ended highly successful St. Joseph careers—guard Jim Koehler (Madison, Ind.), who averaged 15.6 points per game for the season and center Jack Finnegan (Louisville), who averaged 11.8 points per game. Finnegan set a St. Joseph career mark for most rebounds, 840. Junior forwards Ron Holstein (Hamilton, O.) and Al Whitlow (Michigan City, Ind.) ended their second season as Puma starters with respective averages of 18.3 and 11.9 points per game.

Williams, who hit 14 of 22 field goals and 17 of 23 free throws enroute to his record breaking performance against Marian, completed the most successful season any St. Joseph player has had in Puma basketball history. In addition to his record for most points scored in one game, Williams set the following St. Joseph records this season: 1) Most points scored in one season, 543; 2) Best average per game for a season, 24.7; 3) Best average per game for a career, 19.8; 4) Most points scored in a three year career, 1226 in 62 games; 5) Most field goals scored in a season, 202; 6) Most field goals in one game, 17 (twice); 7) Most times scoring 40 or more points in a game, career, 3; 8) Most times scoring 30 or more points in a game, career, 11; 9) First St. Joe player to score more than 500 points in one season.

Williams also set the following Indiana Collegiate conference records this season: 1) Most points scored in one season, 323 in 12 games; 2) Most field goals scored in one season, 120. For the second successive year he led the ICC in scoring.

According to the final NCAA statistics, St. Joseph's ranks 7th in team offense among the nation's small college teams with a team average of 87.9 points per game. Final statistics of the NAIA for small college teams show St. Joseph's in 9th place for team offense with an average of 88.0 points per game.

To complement Williams' record breaking year, the 1959-60 Pumas broke the following St. Joseph team record: 1) Most points scored in a season, 1935; 2) Most points scored by opponents in a season, 1930; 3) Best offensive game average, 87.9; 4) Most field goals scored in a season, 741; 5) Best field goal percentage in a season, .416; 6) Best free throw percentage in a season, .698; 7) Most points scored in winning game, 112; 8) Most field goals scored in a game, 43 (twice).

Feb. 13—Ball State 98—St. Joe 87

The Pumas began against the Ball State Cardinals on Feb. 13 as though they were going to make a scramble of the game. They pulled out to a quick seven point lead in the first five minutes of play, increased it to ten with eight minutes remaining, and left the floor at halftime with a commanding 11 point bulge, 52-41. The Pumas received a severe blow in the first half as ace playmaker Jim Koehler injured his left knee and was forced to leave the game.

The Cardinals overtook the Pumas halftime margin with 14:40 left in the game by a bucket by Henderson. Finnegan retaliated to tie the score, but seconds later Stan Davis hit a jump shot and put Ball State into the lead for good. With 11 minutes left, the Cardinals hit for ten straight points to streak out of reach at 77-64.

Williams tried unsuccessfully to lead a rally by hitting 21 points in the second half but the rally failed to materialize.

A bright note for Williams was that he shattered the Indiana Collegiate Conference single scoring record, but it wasn't enough to stem the tide of defeat. Williams dropped in 30 points for the evening. Finnegan and Whitlow followed Williams' performance with 20 and 15 points respectively.

Feb. 16—Valpo 75—St. Joe 64

The Valpo Crusaders came to the Puma fieldhouse on Tuesday, Feb. 16 with the intention of beating their arch-enemies for the second time this season. And they went home the victors, having laid up 75 points against the Pumas' 64.

The game was a toss up until the Crusaders spurted to a 6 point lead with 4:00 remaining in the first period. Valpo was out in front at the half 35-29. They widened the gap to 15 points in the first 7 minutes of the second period, but the Pumas fought back to shave the lead to 8 points with 1:47 left in the game. A rash of fouls sent Valpo to the line five times in the last 90 seconds to complete 9 free throws and St. Joseph's came on to score on 3 field goals, but the clock ran out with Valparaiso ahead 75-64. Williams broke the old ICC field goal record for goals scored in a single season in this game. He had set the record of 167 last year. However, a tight Valpo defense held him to only 9 points.

The high scorer of the evening and the spearhead of the Puma attack was Ron Holstein who poured in 7 field goals and 10 free throws for 24 points. Jack Finnegan gathered in 21 rebounds and placed second in Puma scoring with 14 points.

Feb. 20—Evansville 108-St. Joe 93

The Evansville Aces hosted the Pumas on Saturday, Feb. 20, and the Pumas came out on the short end for the second time in encounters with the Aces this year. The 108-93 defeat at the hand of the Aces concluded the conference season for both teams. The Pumas concluded their conference season with a dismal 3-9 record, while the Aces chalked up an 11-1 conference mark to win their fifth conference championship in the last seven seasons.

The Pumas played their best basketball since the early part of January in this game. They moved out to a quick 19-10 lead before the Aces caught up with them at 23 all. The game remained close until, with three minutes remaining in the half, Evansville scored nine straight points to pull into a commanding 52-38 halftime lead.

The Pumas fought back in the early second half and with 13:30 left they were only down by five points, 68-63. But, as usual, the Ace's rebounding strength pulled them out of trouble and allowed them to coast over the last seven minutes of the contest.

During this game Bobby Williams nailed down his second consecutive ICC scoring championship, edging out the Ace's Ed Smallwood. Williams garnered 30 points to lead the Pumas' attack. Ron Holstein and Al Whitlow followed with 19 and 18 points respectively. But the Pumas couldn't cope with the Aces tall and talented front line of Smallwood, Dale Wise, and Mel Lurker.

After the game the Aces' front line said they couldn't understand why the Pumas had lost so many conference games. Wise, 6-4 junior forward said he considered them the second best team in the conference. "I definitely think they're better than Butler. They're the fastest team we've played and its hard to understand how they've been beaten as often as they have." Lurker and Smallwood agreed.

Feb. 22—St. Joe 98—Bellarmine 89

In Louisville the Pumas finally ended their victory drought by beating the Bellarmine Knights 98-89. The Pumas led throughout most of the first half as Bellarmine managed to snatch the lead from them only once at 38-37 with 5:30 remaining. But St. Joseph's scored six straight points to erase that deficit and left the floor at the half with a 49-46 edge.

The Knights stuck close to the Pumas throughout the first 14 minutes of the second half mainly through the efforts of their 6-5 center Rudy Montgomery, who hit for 21 of his 30 points in the second half and who dominated the boards for Bellarmine. But with six minutes left in the contest St. Joseph's scored six straight points to pull out to a commanding 90-79 lead. From there on in St. Joseph's stalled effectively leaving the Knights with only one alternative—to foul. But that failed as the Pumas had their best night of the season from the foul line, hitting 30 of 36 free throw attempts for a percentage of .847.

Bobby Williams led the Puma attack with 29 points and broke the St. Joseph record for most points scored in one season. Williams totaled 498 points in 21 games, 14 better than the old standard set by Don Merki in the 1953-54 season.

Al Whitlow and Jim Koehler were right behind Williams with 22 and 18 respectively. Whitlow led the rebounders with 16.

Feb. 27—St. Joe 112—Marian 88

St. Joseph's Pumas concluded their season on a happy note, downing the Marian Knights, 112-88, as the Pumas' fabulous guard Bobby Williams completed his spectacular career with another record-breaking performance. Williams, who had broken almost every St. Joseph scoring record this season and apparently had run out of records to break, snapped his one game scoring mark, which he set on two different occasions this season, by pouring in the amazing total of 45 points. The 5-10 senior from Indianapolis hit 14 of 22 field goal attempts and 17 of 23 free throws enroute to his new mark. Williams, Jim Koehler and Jack Finnegan, only seniors on the squad, were given tremendous ovations both before the game when they were announced as starters and late in the final quarter when they were removed from the game by Coach Joe Iofredo.

Ron Holstein and Koehler supported Williams' great performance with 24 and 22 points respectively as the 112 points counted by the Pumas broke a St. Joseph team and fieldhouse record for most points scored in one game. Holstein led the rebounders with 15 while Williams, Finnegan and Al Whitlow chipped in eight apiece.

The Pumas quickly jumped out to a 10-3 lead and were never headed. They increased their lead

Bobby Williams, senior guard on the St. Joseph College basketball team, has been named the Catholic small college player of the year by the Brooklyn Tablet, a Catholic weekly. to 19 points, 56-37 before Iofredo cleared his bench. St. Joseph's left the floor at half with a 57-47 margin.

Marian managed to stay within 10 to 15 points of the Pumas throughout the first fifteen minutes of the second half but simply ran out of gas in the final five minutes.

The victory, the Pumas second in a row, gave them a final mark of 10-12 while Marian concluded with a 7-14 record.

ICC Roundup

Eight records were broken and another equaled during the 1959-60 Indiana Collegiate Conference basketball season.

Evansville's NCAA College and ICC championship entry accounted for five of the new team and individual standards. and St. Joseph's was involved in the other three.

Bobby Williams of St. Joe rewrote the one-season scoring record with 323 points, and Ed Smallwood of Evansville posted a new high one-season average with 28.7 points per game.

Both of the old marks were set by St. Joseph's Don Merki, who scored 282 points and averaged 23.4 points per game in 1953-54.

Twice named the ICC's most outstanding player, Smallwood also goes into the record book as holder of the new three-year scoring mark. He tallied 811 points in 35 games.

Williams picked up another record by netting 120 field goals during 1959-60, and Smallwood added two one-game records with 47 points and 18 fielders against Butler.

Exchanging compliments, Williams exceeded Smallwood's performance of 113 fielders in 1958-59, and Smallwood went over Williams' 42-point outburst against Ball State earlier in 1959-60. The previous one-game field goal record of 17 was set by Ball State's Stan Davis in 1953-54.

In the team categories, Evansville scored 404 field goals for the season to inch its own mark of 403, posted last year, and the Aces' 44 field goals in the St. Joe game equaled two earlier Evansville totals.

St. Joseph's contributed the final team record by scoring 97 points against Butler—and losing in an overtime, 105-97. Back in 1956-57 Ball State scored 96 to Evansville's 103.

ICC STANDINGS FINAL

Evansville	11	1	.917
Butler	10	2	.833
Valparaiso	8	4	.667
DePauw	4	8	.333
Indiana State	4	8	.333

Williams, of course, was also named to the small college first team All American, along with Jack Frasco of Loras, Bill Smith of St. Peter's, Bill Feller of St. Norbert's, and Dennis Boone of Regis. Williams, 5-10, is four inches shorter than any other man on the squad.

The honor was a major one among a number of post-season awards Williams has received since the season's end. He was recently selected to the Associated Press Little All-America, to Who's Who in Small College Basketball for 1959-60, and to the All-Indiana Collegiate Conference Team for the second consecutive year. He was also given honorable mention on the Catholic Digest's Catholic College All-America. Several other all-star squads to which he was named last year have not yet been announced.

The former Indianapolis Shortridge High School athlete lost out by six votes in the conference's outstanding player of the year balloting by the ICC's players and coaches—an award which Williams captured last year. This season he succumbed to Evansville's Ed Smallwood, who was also an Associated Press Little All-American first team selection. The two have dominated the ICC scoring scene for the past three seasons, with Williams winning the scoring championship the past two years.

This past season Williams set a conference record for most points scored in a single season—323 in 12 games, and he also established the ICC record for most field goals in a season—120 in 12 games.

Hitting on 47 percent of his shots from the field, Williams averaged 24.7 points a game this season to put him up among the nation's small college scoring leaders. His 24.7 average and 543 points are school scoring records, two of the 10 major scoring marks which he holds at St. Joseph's. Others include most points scored in a three-year career—1226; best per-game career average—19.8 (he was held to an 11.7 average and 222 points in his sophomore year because he didn't break into the starting line-up until mid-season. His average as a junior was 21.9); most field goals in one season—202; and most points scored in one game—45, which he compiled in the final game of his collegiate career.

Fifteen times in 22 games this season Williams scored more than 20 points; seven times he scored 30 points or more; and three times he hit for 40 or more. Despite his efforts, the fast-breaking Pumas were able to do no better than a 10-12 record, including 3-9 in the ICC.

In three years of play Williams hit on 45 percent of his shots from the field. Only 160 pounds, he has good speed and possesses a soft, deadly jump shot during which he has the ability to "hang in the air" until the shot is released. He has tremendous spring and this year averaged 8.5 rebounds per game. In fact, as a junior he ranked, despite his size, 10th in the conference in rebounding.

But his greatest forte is his amazing agility under the boards on a lay-up. Once under the basket with the ball in his hands—and this happens often—Williams, a rubber-like contortionist, is usually unstoppable, regardless of the number of defenders under there with him.

Probably too small for professional basketball, Williams hopes to play industrial ball after graduation. An accounting major and a good student, Bobby was one of 20 at St. Joseph's who were elected this year to "Who's Who Among Students in American Colleges and Universities." He is also an officer of the Monogram Club.

Pumas Fall to DePauw, Valpo

Snow, freezing winds, and the DePauw Tigers ruined Jim Holstein's debut as St. Joseph's head baseball coach April 19 as they combined to down the Pumas 4-2 on the St. Joseph diamond.

It was the opening contest of the season for St. Joseph's while the Tigers upped their season mark to 3-0. It was the first Indiana Collegiate conference game for both squads. Before the game the coaches agreed to limit the scheduled twin bill to one nine-inning contest because of the miserable weather.

Through the first five innings it was a pitching duel between Puma starter Bob Gallagher and Tiger hurler John Cassidy. Gallagher, who, in seven innings, allowed six hits, and six walks while striking out one, held a 2-0 advantage thru these first five innings. But he weakened in the eighth and with the score 4-2 was relieved with no one out by Pete Simon, who yielded two hits and no runs over the remaining two stanzas. Cassidy was the victim of the Pumas' only two runs of the day, both unearned. He was replaced by Charlie Geiss, a fireballing southpaw, who stymied the Pumas over the final four innings, giving them only one scratch single while striking out eight and walking four. Geiss was credited with the win while Gallagher absorbed the loss.

The Pumas broke the ice in the fourth inning as they loaded the bases on Jim Koehler's single, an error and Al Whitlow's base on balls. With two gone, catcher Joe Strzelsky blooped a single over the second baseman's outstretched hands to drive across St. Joseph's only tallies of the day.

Gallagher held his margin until the seventh and eighth innings. In the seventh, DePauw picked up their first run on a walk, a single and a sacrifice fly by Dick Tomey. In the eighth the Tigers garnered three tallies and the victory. A walk and a pair of singles loaded the bases with nobody out. Gallagher then walked Bill Sheating, forcing in the tying run. At this point, Simon took over and made only one mistake. A side arm fastball slipped inside to reserve second baseman Al Hutchinson, who drilled it just inside the third base scoring the two decisive runs.

Simon retired the next three hitters but the damage was done.

Strzelszyk led the Puma hitters, picking up two of the five hits off the DePauw pitchers. Koehler, Gallagher and Jim Crowley all chipped in with one. DePauw garnered eight singles off the Puma hurlers.

Valparaiso 22-4—St. Joe 9-1
Valparaiso handed St. Joseph's baseball Pumas their second and third straight losses of the season Apr. 23 22-9 and 4-1, on the St. Joseph's field. The defeats left the Pumas in the Indiana Collegiate conference cellar as the only winless team in the league while the defending champion Crusaders went home with a 3-1 ICC mark.

The gates opened against the Pumas as early as the second inning of the first game when Valpo went to bat with a two-run lead. With runners on first and second and one out, Crusader centerfielder Jack Todhunter hit into an inning-ending double play, but interference was called on Puma catcher Jim Moulthrop for touching Todhunter's bat and the Valpo outfielder was awarded first base. The break inspired the Crusaders on to five unearned runs as they knocked starter Bob Gallagher out of the box and finished the inning with a 7-0 lead.

St. Joseph's sparked their last hopeful rally in the sixth inning. With the score 9-2 against them, Al Whitlow singled, Pat O'Connor tripled and Jack Finnegan homered to make it 9-5. But Valpo came back in the seventh to sew it up with seven runs on only two hits, four walks and an error.

Both teams belted out 16 hits, but the Pumas were guilty of eight errors while Valpo committed only two. Big guns for St. Joseph's were All-Conference centerfielder Jim Koehler with three hits, including a triple, and Tom Roemer and O'Connor with two hits apiece.

The nightcap was a pitcher's duel through the first four innings, with each team getting one hit off of St. Joseph's Pete Simon and Valpo's Barry Bruckner. But in the fifth, three singles, an error, a hit batsman and a double steal gave the Crusaders their four runs. The Pumas loaded the bases with nobody out in the bottom of the fifth but could get nobody across.

The Pumas scored their only run in the seventh when third baseman Bob Decker singled, took second on a ground-out, gained third the same way and finally scored on a throwing error.

The Crusaders outwit St. Joseph's 5-4, and again held the edge in the field, one error to two.

Score by innings:

Hurry Up!

The ICC, which had encountered a problem concerning cancellation of the second game of a twin bill because of darkness last season, has issued a statement instructing the coaches to eliminate all unnecessary stalling in hopes of speeding up the games.

Tennis

Tennis, a sport at which St. Joe teams have never been very successful, has been revived this year after a lapse of several seasons. Coach Edward Dwyer is in charge of a good but inexperienced varsity which has lost its first three outings, and of a group of freshmen including two fine prospects.

In matches this season the varsity has lost to Butler 7-0, Marian Since only Bumbales will be lost through graduation, Coach Dwyer should have an improved squad next year. Two freshmen, Mike Paquette and John Zid, are fine prospects who should greatly aid future teams. Other factors which would aid the building of a stronger tennis team are outside practice which the weather prevented this year, and the attention of a fulltime coach which was impossible since Mr. Dwyer doubles as track coach this Spring.

Golf

With the arrival of warm weather, the 1960 St. Joseph's golf team took to the links at the Curtis Creek Country Club in preparation for the new season. Coach Jim Holstein, who is starting his first season as golf coach, has arranged a schedule of eight matches, including the Little State meet at Muncie on May 13. Last year's team, coached by Fr. Clement Kuhns, posted a 5-7 record, then finished fourth in a 19-team field at the Little State meet.

The Golf team is led by three seniors, Dick Etter, Dick Nietzel, and Pat Bray, and three juniors, Jim Klingel, Dennis Hershberger, and Ron Gronkowski, who return from last year's team.

New Baseball Coach Named Track

Among the sports added to the St. Joseph athletic program this year is track. This will be the first time in seven years that St. Joseph's will have varsity and freshmen track teams. Organized and coached by assistant football coach Ed Dwyer, the team has already laid plans for several upcoming meets.

Due to the poor condition of the running track at St. Joseph's, all meets this year will be away from home. Plans for remedying this situation have already been made, and by next year St. Joseph's undoubtedly will have a track fit for intercollegiate competition.

Seven meets are scheduled for this spring. Among the first will be two dual meets and one triangular meet. In the triangular meet both Frosh and Varsity squads will participate.

The Pumas will also send teams to the Rose Poly Relays and the Manchester Relays.

The last two meets of the season are the big ones, namely, the annual ICC meet May 14 and the Big State Meet, May 21. For these last two, St. Joe's will only send its top men.

St. Joe Sixth In All-Sports Race

At the winter-spring separation point, Butler stands first in the Indiana Collegiate Conference all-sports race, with St. Joseph's sixth.

The Bulldog athletes, now seeking their third straight all-sports title, have earned 43 points with a first in football, second in basketball and fourth in cross-country.

Trailing by only the four points which Butler earned in cross-country, Evansville has picked up 39 points with a second in football and first in basketball. All-sports points are triple weighted for football, basketball, baseball and track, and a straight seven point maximum is used for tennis, golf and cross-country.

In the 1959-60 derby, Valparaiso is third with 20 points, followed by Indiana State, 28½; DePauw, 22; St. Joseph's, 18; and Ball State, 12½.

James Holstein, assistant football and freshman basketball coach at St. Joseph's College, has been appointed head baseball coach at St. Joseph's for the coming spring campaign. He also is head golf coach. Holstein succeeds Robert Shemky who was relieved of his baseball coaching duties in order to allow him the additional time needed to assume new duties in the academic area.

Coach Holstein came to St. Joseph's last fall after spending three years as head basketball and baseball coach and assistant football and track coach at Sycamore high school in Cincinnati. His record there was 34-23 in basketball and 40-28 in baseball.

A native of Hamilton, O., Holstein was graduated from Hamilton Catholic high school in 1948 and received his bachelor's degree from the University of Cincinnati in 1952. At Cincinnati, he participated in football, basketball, baseball and track. He played professional basketball with Minneapolis Lakers from 1952 to 1955 and with the Fort Wayne Pistons in 1955-56. He was also in the Milwaukee Braves' baseball farm system in 1955 when he played 1st base and centerfield for Quebec City (Canada). He batted .278 for this class C club. He has also played and managed in class B and semi-pro ball.

Mr. Shemky coached the Puma baseball team for the last three seasons. In addition to his coaching duties he is also intramural director and instructor in physical education and business law, positions he will continue to hold. His teams compiled an overall record of 19-23.

He came to St. Joe's in September of 1956 with a six year high school coaching record of 20-9 in baseball and 27-20-1 in football. He coached two years each at Mount Clemens High School, Mount Clemens, Mich.; Nobertine High School, Green Bay, Wis.; and Westbury High School, Long Island, New York.

Mr. Shemky played both football and basketball for the University of Michigan where he received his bachelor's degree (1947) and his Master of Education (1955). His studies were interrupted by three and one half years of military service, which he spent with the 7th Air Force Intelligence Corps in Honolulu.

After returning and completing his B.S., he joined the University of Michigan football staff and served as freshman line coach for one year.

Who does Holstein expect the most opposition from in the conference? "From what I've heard, Valparaiso's defending champions will again be the team to beat with Butler and DePauw offering a strong challenge. St. Joseph's, Indiana State, Evansville and Ball State all rate the darkhorse role.

Last season St. Joseph's finished with a 7-8 record. In the ICC the Pumas wound up in a tie for fifth place with a 3-6 mark.

Pumas Slate Nine Football Games for 1960

St. Joseph's College has announced a nine-game football schedule for 1960 which includes two new opponents. The Pumas will play Wheaton College at Wheaton, Ill. on Oct. 8 and will close their schedule against Central State College at St. Joseph's Nov. 12.

Coach Joe Iofredo's Pumas, who had a 4-4 record last season in Iofredo's first year as head football coach, will open at home Sept. 17 against Northeast Missouri. The Bulldogs nipped St. Joseph's in the opener last year at Kirksville, Mo., 18-16.

The other six teams on the schedule will be the traditional Indiana Collegiate conference opponents—DePauw, Butler, Indiana State, Valparaiso, Ball State and Evansville. St. Joseph's homecoming will be against Ball State on Oct. 29. The Pumas finished in a three-way tie for third place last year with a 3-3 ICC mark.

Wheaton will replace Loras College of Dubuque, Iowa, who dropped football after last season because of increasing operating expenses, on the St. Joseph's schedule. Wheaton and St. Joseph's have never met before in athletic competition. Central State, who replaces Western Kentucky, met St. Joseph's once before—in 1955—and beat the Pumas, 26-14, at Shewbridge field in Chicago.

The 1960 schedule includes five games at home and four on the road.

Spirited Puma Profs Huff And Puff to Near Win

An inspired Puma Profs ball club huffed and puffed on near-even terms with the Monogram club for 39 minutes of the Faculty-Monogram club basketball game on March 8, only to see its heart-warming effort turned to a 42-44 loss in the last minute of play.

After trailing through the first three quarters (the game was divided into four comfortable 10-minute quarters) the Faculty wheezed into a short lead early in the final period, were tied, tied, tired, and finally lost on a short jump shot by Monogram club member Bob Decker with 58 seconds left to play.

Starting slowly, the Faculty attack began to jell in the third quarter and actually outscored the Monogram club 29-22 in the final two periods on the hot shooting of Frs. Ernest Ranly, Ambrose Ruschau, and Coach Edward Dwyer.

Down at half-time by nine points (13-22), the Faculty became tigers on the backboards and wizards with the ball, creeping up slowly on their youthful opponents, as an appreciative crowd roared its approval.

Fr. Ranly and Coach Dwyer, with 11 points each, paced the Faculty attack. Fr. Ranly held the monopoly on rebounding, grabbing off the game high of 20.

Dwyer's bull-like rushes under the basket and compact, corpulent Rudy Volz's bounces up through the key were the outstanding offensive moves of the game.

The main target of the crowd's jeering was Fr. Daniel Schaefer, who turned in an offensively futile, but nonetheless colorful performance. Among his contributions to the cause were five fouls, one point, and a technical foul, prompted by his failure to report into the game.

The Faculty, gunning at a phenomenal 16% clip, outshot the Monogram club, 83-51, hitting on 13 against 17 for their opponents. The Monogram shot at 34%.

High point men for the Monogram club were Lou Markowski with eight and Les Klein and Bob Decker with seven apiece.

The winners were coached by Puma cagers Al Whitlow and Ron Holstein. St. Joe chaplain Fr. Leonard Kostka guided the Faculty. Referees were Bobby Williams and Jim Koehler, also Puma cagers.

The game trophy, a gold beer keg, surmounted by a "J" and an academic mortarboard, was presented to the winning captains, Dennis Evans and Hank Murphy by Koehler, president of the Monogram club.

(The "J" symbolized the Monogram club, the cap, the Faculty, and the beer keg, the common bond that exists between the two.)

The game netted $270.65 in proceeds, to be used by the Monogram club for its orphans' parties. "Terrible Turk" Dwyer and Vic (Tiny) Roos gave an exhibition of both collegiate and professional wrestling at half-time.

ment has set the six weeks session from June 20 through July 29, 1960.

Morning classes will meet Monday through Friday. The first period will run from 8:15 to 9:40; second period 9:50 to 10:45; third period 10:55 to 12:20. A maximum of eight semester hours of college credit can be earned by attending the three period morning classes.

Evening classes in the summer session will be offered beginning June 20 and ending July 29. Courses carrying three semester hours of credit will be offered from 6:00 to 8:10 p.m., Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays and from 6:45 to 10:00 p.m. on Tuesdays and Thursdays. Two credit hour classes will be held from 8:20 to 9:50 p.m. on Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays and from 6:00 to 8:10 p.m. on Tuesdays and Thursdays. ## Varsity Edges Alumni 7-6 In "Old Timers" Game

SJC Places In Bowling Finals

St. Joe took second place behind Notre Dame, losing by 4565 to 4551 in five games, at the Midwest Intercollegiate Bowling Conference Tournament held at Valparaiso University April 3.

In the regular season St. Joe placed third in the final standings, DePaul took first place and Notre Dame was second.

The other schools in the conference are Valparaiso and Loyola of Chicago. Next year Illinois Institute of Technology will also join the conference making it a six-school conference.

This conference is at least six years of age but this past year is the first year in which the bowling team of St. Joe had actual varsity standing.

The regular season bowling consists of home and home matches between all the members. Each match consists of five games. The scoring is on a point system, two points per game and one point for total pins in five games. Conference championship is decided on this point system basis. DePaul won this year with 62 points out of a possible 88. DePaul had on its team the National Intercollegiate Individual Champion who averaged 200 plus this season.

St. Joseph's expects to have at least one representative in the National Tournament next year. The bowlers who could make a very creditable showing in such a national tournament are in our present freshmen class. If they develop as expected you will hear about them.

Puma football star Les Klein receives congratulations from St. Joe football coach Joe Iofredo on winning the Brother David Trophy presented by the Northern Ohio Club of the College. Klein also was on the ICC All-Conference and All-Catholic Midwest teams.

Grunt and Groan Boys End First Season

St. Joseph's took four wrestlers, or one-half a team, to the Little State Meet held at DePauw University March 3 and 4.

The four men were: Joe Wild, Heavy Weight; Leo Garibay, 177 lbs.; Don Clark, 157 lbs.; and Mike Mettler, 137 lbs.

Lack of experience hurt the Saint Joseph's wrestlers although they made a good showing despite this fact. Mike Mettler scored St. Joseph's only points with a two point fourth place finish. Joe St. Joseph's wrestling squad . . . Wild, Leo Garibay, and Don Clark all finished in 5th place in the state meet.

Prior to the Little State Meet the St. Joe team lost a practice match 10-26 to Valparaiso University.

St. Joseph's could have a good team next year, according to

The Puma Varsity managed to slip by the Alumni 7-6 Apr. 24 in the annual Old Timers football game on the St. Joe campus.

The game this year was sponsored by the Monogram Club and the St. Joe Alumni Association.

With coaching by Fred "Butch" Jones, '39, the Alumni put up a fierce fight, falling short by the single point. Since only nine Alumni were on campus for the game, the Old Timer squad had to be augmented by several men from the Varsity.

The Old Timers looked anything but old as they fought and hustled throughout the entire game, putting on a good scrappy show for the several hundred spectators on hand for the game.

Jim Righeimer, '54, was especially active, particularly during the last 20 seconds of the game when he picked up three penalties for a total of 25 yards penalized.

One of the most outstanding plays of the game came when alumnus Ray Banary, '57, intercepted a Gardner pass near his own end zone, and ran the play back for about 50 yards, weaving his way between would be tacklers.

There was a little extra huffing and puffing done by the Alumni, but as a whole they appeared to be in surprisingly good shape.

The game was played under ordinary game regulations, except that there were no kickoffs, the ball being placed on the 20 yard line instead.

The Varsity opened the scoring in the second quarter on a 47 yard pass-run play from Gardner to Madden. Dave Beran then booted over a perfect placekick for the one point conversion.

The game remained at the 7-0 score until the fourth quarter when the Alumni finally hit the scoring column. Ironically enough, it was not an alumnus who scored, but one of the supplementary players from the Varsity.

With time running out, Dennis Houlihan, a freshman quarterback from the Varsity completed a pass to Tom Deem, '59, who took the ball to about the five yard line. A play later Houlihan again took the snap from center, this time running around his right end for the score. After the touchdown the Alumni decided to go for broke, trying for the two point conversion. Houlihan faded back to pass, was rushed hard, and got off a wobbly throw that was batted down by a varsity defender, and the game ended with the final score at 7-6.

Other participating Alumni were: John Frawley, '51 of Chicago; Jack Righeimer, '51, of Chicago; Jerry Wenzel, '53, of St. Henry, Ohio; Paul Scherschel, '57, of Gary, Indiana; Hank Alesia, '59, of Cicero, Ill. and Dick Hagye, '59, of Mishawaka, Ind.

wrestling Coach Ed Dwyer, if a few of the underclassmen can come up to expected performances. The squad will be built around Leo Garibay, who must shed a lot of weight to get into proper wrestling condition; Don Clark, a top prospect for the 157 pound class; and Mike Mettler who will take over the 130 lb. class next year.

Sophomores for next year that may develop into good wrestlers include Jim Delaney and Art Berger who will probably wrestle at 137 and 147 lbs. respectfully. Ray McMullen a tough little man at 123 lbs. is expected to come around also.

Mid-semester will find Bill Lehmen eligible for varsity competition and he may move out some of the upperclassmen when he does. Heavy-weight and 177 lb. classes are weak with only Leo Klemme (Jr.) and Dick Hieptas (Fr.), both inexperienced, holding top priority at the present time. However, the addition of two football players Joe Zolicki and Mike Bartels could make the spot secured.

Sacred Music Concert Held

The Institute of Liturgical Music of St. Joseph's College sponsored a concert of sacred music in the college chapel on April 18.

The concert featured Noel Goemanne, organist and choir director at St. Rita's Church in Detroit, Mich. and professor of organ in St. Joseph's Institute of Liturgical Music; and the college's Liturgical Choir and Schola Cantorum under the direction of Fr. Lawrence Heiman, C.P.P.S., chairman of the Institute.

Most of the numbers by the choir and Schola Cantorum were taken from the liturgy of Holy Week and Easter.

Mr. Goemanne, a native of Belgium, earned diplomas in piano and music theory from the Jury Centrale in Ghent, Belgium and received the Laureate, or master's degree, from Lemens Institute in Mechelen, Belgium. He has studied under Flor Peeters and other European masters and has done considerable concert work. He is also a composer of Masses, motets, and organ and piano compositions.

The Institute of Liturgical Music will be formally initiated next summer. It will offer courses in chant, organ and other liturgical music leading to both the B.A. degree and certificate. Largely modeled after the Corso Ordinario of Gregorian Chant of the Pontifical Institute of Sacred Music in Rome, the Institute will be conducted only during the summers. (See Feb. issue of Contact—Ed.)

RCA to Record Glee Club

On March 25 the St. Joseph's College Glee Club began its spring concert season with a concert at Marian College, Indianapolis. Also participating in this concert were the Marian Singers. Directing the combined chorus for the singing of selections from Faure's Requiem and other selections was Fr. Lawrence Heiman, C.P.P.S., head of the St. Joseph's music department.

A highlight of the St. Joseph's glee club concert season was the club's participation in the Indiana Catholic College Choral Festival, held this year on May 1 at St. Francis College in Fort Wayne. This Festival was initiated at St. Joseph's College in 1956 and is held annually at one of Indiana's Catholic Colleges.

The climax of the Glee Club's concert season will be the Spring Choral Festival in the College auditorium, featuring, in addition to the glee club, the choral organizations of the College of St. Francis, Joliet and of Rosary College in Chicago. This spring Choral Festival will be held May 4.

Present for the May 4 Choral Festival will be the RCA Recording Company from Camden, New Jersey to make the 1960 St. Joseph's glee club record. Included on the record will be selections from Faure's Requiem, Arcadelt's Ave Marie and lighter numbers as "What Shall We Do With the Drunken Sailor" "76 Trombones", etc.

conferences have been held once each decade since then.

Qubeck was appointed to the Governor's Youth Council last Jan. Instructed by Governor Handley to prepare Indiana's report to the White House Conference, the Governor's Youth Council is composed of directors of all state agencies having legal responsibility for youth services and programs, and of lay representatives from each of the state's 11 congressional districts.

Qubeck is presently serving the Council as district director for the Second Congressional District, coordinating the volunteer work of the Council in Newton, Benton, Jasper, Pulaski and Cass counties. The Council's report to the White House Conference was the result of the work of 5,557 persons in Indiana. At the conference Qubeck supervised the compilation of the daily memos submitted by the 126 delegates from Indiana at the end of each day's meetings.

The compilations were used as a source for news gathering and reporting of Indiana's delegate activities during the conference and also as the core for the final report given to Gov. Handley and the people of Indiana at the completion of the conference.

A native of Whiting and a 1937 graduate of Whiting High School, Qubeck was a member of the Advisory Council of Hoosier Boys' Town in Schererville, Ind., from 1950 to 1955 while he was a member of the faculty at Whiting High School.
